To the Public

I have been treating with the United Doctors for about two weeks, and while I am not entirely well, yet my improvement has surprised myself and my many friends. Seven years ago I had a severe hemorrhage and vomited blood. My life was despaired of for months. The result of which brought about a severe anaemia. This, with a catarrhal condition of the stomach and liver, brought about loss of appetite, obstinate vomiting, jaundice, and weakened, debilitated condition, from which I became unable to do any Jefferson. work. After treating with several physicians here and in Big Rapids, Mich., without relief, I was finally persuaded by my sister, Miss Elsie, of Belding, Mich., who was advised by a friend, to have me brought to the United Doctors at Grand Rapids for WANTED-Helper in a tin shop, with
